GEP Solutions

| Our solutions

In recent years, the global political context has stressed the need for economic and social organizations to have information and political intelligence that allows them to become proactive agents in the design of public policies, as well as in the regulatory debate.

Therefore, GEP offers the following solutions:

Strategic information

Analysis and political intelligence

Public Affairs

Specialized solutions

1. Strategic information

GEP SIE is a technological platform customized to the needs of our clients that allows systematized, updated and effective information to be consulted 24/7, through which it is possible to access:

Early warnings of federal and local legislative activities

Information from the official communication channels of the Executive (DOF, CONAMER)

Profile of officials and legislators of the Executive and Legislative branches

Specialized reports of parliamentary activity

Daily political-administrative news synthesis.

| 1. Strategic information

Given the need for economic and social organizations to promptly obtain strategic information, in order to visualize the political-regulatory trends and risks, GEP has recently launched new solutions:

- Judicial branch and Autonomous Bodies. GEP has the capabilities to send alerts of the main resolutions of the Supreme Court and autonomous organizations such as the Bank of Mexico, the Federal Institute of Telecommunications, and the Federal Commission of Economic Competition.
- Monitoring of Latin America. As part of global regulatory trends and the need to have information on the public agenda of other countries, we offer a periodic report on regulatory trends and political alerts in the region.

Similarly, in order to share information of interest directly and in a timely manner, GEP has implemented a new form of communication via WhatsApp – INFOGEP – .

| 2. Analysis and political intelligence

To improve the corporate decision-making process, it is necessary to have a strategic vision of the political and regulatory context. For this reason, we offer our analysis and political intelligence solution, which includes:

3. Public affairs

Solution that aims to establish strategic relations with key actors in the public sector, in order to help organizations effectively achieve their corporate goals.

- Institutional relationship with federal, state and municipal public authorities, as well as with business organizations and associations and other sectors (academic, civil society, etc.).
- Federal and state lobbying.
- Technical support ('back-office') to help the client in the daily management of their public affairs agenda.
- Support in the preparation of a positioning document ('leave behind') that serves as a tool for assertive communication with public officials and legislators.
- Specific solution for chambers and associations: technical secretariat for legislative engagement committees, corporate affairs, and institutional relations.

| 4. Specialized solutions

Legal and public policy solutions

Legal analysis and development of positions on legislative projects

Analysis of current legislation at the federal and state levels

Proposals for public policies and legislation

Comparative law of public policies

Preparation of sociological and political opinion

| 4. Specialized solutions

Strategic planning

GEP offers strategic planning solutions in order to position the relevance of the public affairs teams within organizations and strengthen the corporate decision-making process:

- Support to corporations in the creation and integration of their public affairs teams.
- Support in the recruitment process and training of public affairs personnel.
- Analysis of the overall context for the development and execution of business projects and investments.
- Strategic planning workshop whose objective is to assist organizations in the construction of their corporate objectives, with a vision that integrates the challenges and opportunities presented by the national and international political ecosystem in the short, medium and long term.
