Conekta Intermodal is a fundamental logistics center located just 4 kilometers from the port of Topolobampo, Sinaloa. This hub allows efficient interconnection between various means of transport, including road, rail, sea and air, which facilitates the agile and safe distribution of goods both nationally and internationally. Thanks to its strategic location and modern infrastructure, Conekta Intermodal has established itself as a reference point for companies that want to expand their foreign trade operations. This center not only optimizes delivery times, but also reduces logistics costs, offering a comprehensive solution for the global supply chain.
